

Favor-ful

May 28, 2009 at 11:15 AM

NavyandLavender.com is one of my absolute favorite gift sites. They have the prettiest gift kits, including a men's grooming set (a pre-wedding day must) and a Girl's Night Out Kit stocked with bachelorette party essentials.

The site recently added a variety of wedding-day favors to its list of perfectly packaged offerings. Having a summer affair? Check out the flip-flop luggage tags, which are great for weekend getaways or for a destination wedding. Looking to green? Give guests personalized favor cards made from plantable paper so they can start a wildflower garden.

If you really want to go all out with favors or even use them as a centerpiece accent, look no further than the favor cake. It comes beautifully wrapped in paper to match your wedding palette and can feature any favor from the site. Don't see anything you like? Contact N&L directly and they'll create a custom favors to complete your cake.

Visit navyandlavender.com for more info and to start shopping.

—Rachel Jacoby, Assistant Editor