Navy and Lavender... the art of Gifting

In search of favors or gifts with a touch of class, look no further, Navy & Lavender is a fine gifts and favors company focusing on weddings and other special occasions. With its distinctive charm and personalized details, the company offers a unique and stylish assortment of the ideal gifts for every event. The brand's artful aesthetic is expressed through its creative packaging, from decorative party favors to exceptional gifts wrapped in the company's signature navy box and stitched ribbon. The name Navy & Lavender comes from the brand's sophisticated yet whimsical style. The deep navy represents the company's polished, refined side, while the elegant lavender speaks to its softer, more romantic sensibility – together they form the perfect balance.
