Good gifting

FRIDAY, AUGUST 8, 2014

I first wrote about gift and favor company Navy & Lavender in Brides New York a couple of years ago when the company debuted. In addition to all their adorable favor and gift set offerings, I loved their welcome tote featuring pre-designed themes like "City Chic" (coffee taffy, chocolate chip biscotti, mints, trail mix, bottled water, and a travel game). Well, I recently re-visited their website, and discovered they've got a ton of great new offerings. They've expanded their collection of welcome totes (there are 19 different themes now, including location-themed bags for San Francisco, Boston, and Texas), and they now have a more affordable line of gable box welcome gifts (themes include Picnic Treats and Seaside Sweets). They've also expanded their favors section—one of my favorite ideas is the vintage New York City postcard cookie, pictured here.
