Lone Star Love Tote from Navyandlavender.com

BY NATASHA GARBER

You mailed your wedding invitations to remote reaches of the globe—or at least beyond Houston's borders. And those far-flung loved ones who received them? Most of them have RSVP'd "Yes, yes, yes!" Which means they're not only going to be guests at your wedding, they'll also be visitors to Houston. These guest-hosting tips will ensure that you welcome them with true Houston hospitality and treat them to a visit they'll want to write home about.
